What's On? Summer Madness is a festival for young people, where they have space to encounter God and grow in their relationship with Him. We reckon getting away with your friends to encounter God and grow in your relationship with Him are the best of times.

The programme contains numerous hours of high octane programming throughout the weekend. The mornings in SM Big Top are filled with awesome Spirit-filled worship, practical teaching from leading youth speakers and performances from a wide range of international and local Christian artists. In the afternoons there will be a range of activities that can only be described as endless, with workshops and seminars, bountiful supply of talented musicians to keep you entertained, chill out zones, cafes and acoustic afternoons. There will also be myriad of fun and active activities including 5 a-side football competition, Tug-of-War, Ultimate Frisbee, Dodgeball, Tag Rugby and an 'It's a Knockout' competition. Back by popular demand is the sailing and canoeing in the harbour. In the Wigwam, where there will also be giant garden games to give you an easy excuse to act like a child again! At some point over the festival you will have to make sure you check out the hidden gem of Glenarm that is the Walled Garden. Finally there will also be lots of bar- b- ques or one can take time out to soak up the Sun (or maybe the rain) with friends. From evening running late into the nights are cafes, various live band venues, karaoke, themed discos, continuous worship, 24/7 prayer....the list goes on. The theme for this year's event is "Truth to Dare" and will be explored by special speakers Gavin Calver (Evangelical Alliance), Krish Kandiah (Home for Good), Amy Orr-Ewing (Oxford Centre for Christian Apologetics) plus others too.....
